Secretary of the Navy—Victor H. Metcalf, of California.

Secretary of the Interior—Ethan Allen Hitchcock, of Missouri.

Attorney General—Charles J. Bonaparte, of Maryland.

Postmaster General—George von L. Meyer, of Massachusetts.

Secretary of Agriculture—James Wilson, of Iowa.

Secretary of Commerce and Labor—Oscar S. Straus, of New York.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Probably That Other Week
Will Not Be Needed to Close Up.

Things are drawing to a close in Circuit Court. No more criminal cases are to be tried the present term and there are no civil cases of public interest to be disposed of.

Frank Allen, the negro indicted on the charge of stealing hams from Clark & Denton, was admitted to bail in the sum of $100 Tuesday.

The time of the court yesterday was all consumed in the case of Nina Anglin, a colored school teacher of Lafayette, who had been ousted by the trustees. She brought suit against the superintendent and trustees to enjoin them from interfering with her in the prosecution of her work. The case is one of interest to the colored population. The court will render judgment some time soon.

The indications point to adjournment this week, as the docket is pretty well disposed of, though the first few days of the coming week may be necessary to clean up.

Lamp Overturned.

Ada Irwin, a colored woman who lives on the Princeton road, was severely burned Saturday night by the overturning of a lamp. Her burns were at first thought to be fatal.

Sent to Asylum.

Albert Bohannon, a boy of only 12 years of age, was tried for lunacy before Judge Breathitt, Tuesday, and ordered sent to the asylum for treatment.

EWING TO THE PRIZERS

Instructions in Regard to the Handling of Tobacco.

SCHEDULE OF PRICES.

Association Members Cautioned About the Prizing of Crop.

Glenraven, Tenn., Oct. 24.—Now, that the new season's work is almost at hand, it is important that we weigh well the matter of prizes, warehousemen and the work of each.

The Executive Committee have more positive instructions this year to give contracts to those prizers only, who grade properly in our inspector's report. It is not a matter to be considered from any standpoint save that of business, and the man who is most competent.

There is no doubt that the work of the prizer affects the price of tobacco, to a greater extent than anything else. Even the poorest quality will improve if well handled, and the best wrapper will decrease in value, if the prizer does not know his business. This year the county chairman and the whole management of the association will work together to secure the most competent men for this work.

Contracts are now being made with warehousemen, and while we have not heard from all counties we know that Smith & Williams, Kendrick & Runyon, Casey & Co., of Clarksville, and Woodbridge & Co., of Hopkinsville, have signed. There will be others all over the Black Patch, but I want to warn our members of the danger of not patronizing our bonded storage houses. Be sure that you borrow money only from those who are bonded association houses, thus giving yourself double protection.

Within the next few weeks our schedule of prices will be completely overhauled, our committee making such changes as the two years of experience teaches us is quite necessary. This time it will be made upon a thoroughly systematic basis, each special tobacco priced according to its relative value.

F. C. EWING, Gen. Man'gr.

FIRE ALARM.

Residence of J. O. Cushman Slightly Damaged.

At noon last Tuesday the residence of Mr. J. O. Cushman, on South Walnut street, was discovered to be on fire. An alarm was promptly turned in, but when the department arrived the fire had been about put out.

The roof was burning at a pretty good rate when some one passing saw it, but as to how it caught is not known, as there was no chimney near where the fire originated. The fire department did some good work with buckets, as Mr. Cushman did not want the hose used if possible to do without it. Most of the furniture had been taken out by the crowd, as the destruction of the house seemed probable at one time.

A Suggestion for Prankish
Boys for Next Week.

November 1st is All Saints Day, just a week from to-day. Wednesday is Hallow-E'en. That night the mischievous boys will be out for fun. Doubtless, they have already begun planning what they are to do, without it. Most of them that, as the stock law is in force and many front fences have already been torn down and others are soon to be, that when they find a gate that can be lifted from its hinges, they make a complete job of it and take the fence as well as the gate.

LAST OBSTACLE

To the Primary Election Removed—Now for the Home Stretch.

Circuit Judge John M. Galloway, at Bowling Green Saturday, refused to grant an injunction to restrain the Democratic Executive Committee from holding the primaries to nominate candidates for State offices, and also a candidate for United States Senator. Judge Galloway, in his opinion, which was rendered immediately after the close of argument by the attorneys, held that the abrogation of the rule requiring voters in the primary to disclose how they had voted in the Congressional race removed the only objection which could have been raised to the primary, and that the other grounds on which the Republican attorneys, representing the plaintiff, relied in their suit, are unavailing.

No further action to prevent the holding of the primary on November 6 can be taken.

"DOLLAR WHEAT."

"How Easy it Would Have Been to Get It."

Usually the Biggest crops are raised before harvest. Don't get panicky now about your crops. The past season was another illustration that the world will take all you raise. Corn went to the minimum; potatoes, ditto; oats, above; wheat nearly there. Oh, how easy it would have been to get $1 a bushel for all the wheat and the minimum prices for all the corn and oats and barley and potatoes and cotton, if even one-tenth of the farmers would have taken the advice of this paper. You see it now, don't you?—Up-to-Date Farming.

We will give every farmer in Christian county a chance to join the up-to-date farmers, but we are not going to call him out of his house nor corner him on the street to get him to join. We trust to a man's manhood and honor in organizing him to his own interest.

MAMMOTH DEAL

Brasher Coal and Mining Co. Sells Another Mine.

One of the largest mining deals which has taken place in Western Kentucky for many years was consummated Friday, when the Royal Coal Mines, owned by the Brasher Coal and Mining Co., of Hopkins county, was transferred to the Chesley Mining Co. The consideration was $175,000. This company also owned the Oak Hill mine, near Nortonville, but disposed of it last July to the Chesley Co. The price paid for the Oak Hill property was $80,000. The new company will place electric haulage in both their mines at once, and otherwise enlarge the plants.

A Bad Back is Always Worse During Wet or Changeable Weather.

Is your back like a barometer? Does it foretell every change of weather?

Does every cold settle on your kidneys? Bring aching, throbbing pains? Does it disorder the urine?

The kidneys are calling for help. Use Doan's Kidney Pills. Guaranteed by Hopkinsville testimony.

C. B. Eades, of the firm of Eades & Davis, proprietors of the coal yard on Seventh street and the L. & N. R. R., and who lives at 402 East Seventh street, says: "I saw Doan's Kidney pills advertised and so highly recommended by persons who had used them that I procured a box and gave them a thorough trial. I had suffered for a long time with a heavy pain across the small of my back, sharp and acute at times. When I caught cold it always settled in my back and there followed a weakness of the kidneys which was made more acute at night. I tried various remedies but none of them gave the satisfactory results that I obtained from the use of Doan's Kidney pills. I am pleased to say that they brought me great relief. I have recommended Doan's Kidney pills and will continue to do so to all my friends and acquaintances."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the

A SUFFERER FROM PILES

N. S. Wilbur, Secretary Louisville Base Ball Club, After Ten Years Suffering, Is Cured by Paracamp.

HAD TRIED MANY REMEDIES

N. S. Wilbur, the popular Secretary of the Louisville Base Ball Club, says:

"I was a sufferer from Chronic Piles for a period of ten years or more, and while I used practically all of the known remedies, I received nothing but temporary relief. One night while traveling my suffering became so intense that in desperation I used Paracamp it being the only preparation that I had with me. I did not think for a moment that I would get relief, but in my condition was willing to try anything. Much to my surprise after the first application my suffering became less. I was able to go to sleep and when I awoke in the morning my pain was all gone. I applied Paracamp two or three times afterwards, not because I experienced any suffering but I feared a return of the pain.

I am glad to state, however, that the trouble has entirely disappeared and I believe myself, for the first time in over ten years cured.

I regard the effect of Paracamp in my case as simply wonderful and would not have believed it possible for a remedy to do what it has done had it not been for my actual experience with the preparation."

Paracamp positively does not contain anything that will injure the most delicate skin. It is a clean, safe, cooling, soothing, application that every one can use every day with pleasing and satisfactory results.

A trial will convince you. So get a bottle of Paracamp to-day from your druggist. We guarantee every bottle to give satisfaction. If it fails to do what we claim, go back to your druggist, get your money back.

Sold only in 50c, 1.00 and 4.00 bottles.—The Paracamp Company, Louisville, Ky., U. S. A.

OF HENDERSON.

President Roosevelt will make a visit to Panama next month.

Mrs. E. O. Davis, a bride of three weeks, formerly Miss Ollie Nichols, of Lexington, died in Los Angeles, Cal., Tuesday after a week's illness.

Judge H. H. Lorton, of Tennessee, is tipped as the most probable successor of Justice Brown, on the Supreme Court bench.

Wm. A. Smith, a Louisville policeman, scratched a small pimple off his nose, which caused it to turn into a carbuncle, followed by erysipelas and in nine days he was dead.

The New York Life Insurance Company has 100 policyholders in this city, and at least 75 per cent. of them have voted to re-elect the "administration ticket" of directors.

A special committee, appointed by the Governor of Indiana, has investigated life insurance charges and has reported that they are so high that they are oppressive to the people who have to pay for policies.

The first joint session of the Kentucky State Grange and the State Farmers' Improvement Society met at Lexington Tuesday and for three days the two bodies will be in session.

Senator McCreary spoke at Morganfield Tuesday and Gov. Beckham at Benton. The Senator was met by a committee of Confederate Veterans and marched under the old battle-flag under which he fought.

The days for supplemental registration will be next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, the last three days of October. If you were sick or absent from home October 2, you can register by making affidavit in the county clerk's office. Voters in all the small towns have this privilege also.

Mayor Weaver, of Philadelphia, Tuesday issued an order preventing further presentation of "The Clansman," deciding it calculated to produce disorder and endanger lives. The action was taken after hearing a delegation of representative negroes, and counsel for the show. The latter will seek an injunction to keep the Mayor from interfering with the production.

Noel Gaines has sued W. P. Walton, editor of the Frankfort Journal, for $25,000, for calling the Crusader's Haly-Lassing letter a forgery. Gaines insists that the letter is genuine, although it is said he admits that it was never mailed to Lassing, but fell into his hands. Lassing says he never secured the letter and Haly intimates that his signature was attached to it with a rubber stamp.

Deafness Cannot be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased part of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is cured by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which may be cured but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular free.

Latham, Alexander & Co's. annual publication, "Cotton Movement and Fluctuations," is out for 1906. Features are a valuable article written by Messrs. Elison & Co., of Liverpool, especially for this book, also "Southern Cotton Mills," "To Increase the Growth of Cotton Within the Empire," "Cotton Production and Labor Supply," "Effect on Cotton Prices of Dealings in Futures," as well as the annual review of the cotton trade for the past season—besides the usual Tables of Receipts, Stocks, Exports, Consumption, Acreage, Total Visible Supply, and Fluctuations for a series of years. There is much other original matter that cannot be found elsewhere in such a concise form. This publication is issued for gratuitous distribution among their customers, and is not for sale.

Eight special articles, each of actual importance to the American reading public, and nine short stories of the highest quality are contained in the November Everybody's. It is a number that should make a strong appeal to the widest possible variety of American readers. As for the fiction, a glance at the list of authors will indicate the unusual interest of the magazine in that field. There are stories by Alice Brown, Herman Whitaker, Eleanor Hallowsell Abbott, Justus Miles Forman, Maximilian Foster, Hugh Pendexter, Sarah N. Cleghorn, and Elizabeth Flint Wade. Such a list proves the presence of romance of the best sort and delightful humor and drama of power.

Mail advices to France from Indo-China tell of the unspeakable crimes of the King of Annam recently. After killing one of his wives he carried the body to be cooked and served up for dinner, forcing his entourage to eat it under pain of death. Some of the King's wives were bound and burned with burning oil and subjected to other cruelty, while naked women were thrown into the cages of wild beasts, where they were devoured before the eyes of the King. Finally the French authorities stepped in and made a prisoner of King Thanh-Thao, who has been adjudged insane by Dr. Humas, of the French Colonial staff.

Burton, the Kansas Senator who is in jail on a six months' sentence for grafting, is having an easy time. His jailer permits him to leave the jail for "walks," and his wife furnishes him his meals from her boarding house near the prison.

A jury was empaneled at Lexington Tuesday in the Ketterer Asylum case, and the taking of evidence was begun. Several witnesses on the stand gave sensational testimony.

Wealthy friends have come to the rescue of James W. Henning the New York broker, whose failure was announced, and will carry his indebtedness until he is able to resume business.

Proper Dresses for Girls, Misses and Grown-Ups

Designs for Dresses for Seven and Seventeen.

With the coming of cooler days one must pick the dresses which will be in harmony with the change, and nothing is finer than the little smoked frocks of alpaca for young girls. They not only can be worn for the end of the summer season, but later on for school. Alpaca is also much to be commended for the making of dresses for misses' wear, as they are not only serviceable but smart. In fact, it will be distinctly wise if for the majority of the young folks' new gowns, the chosen materials are alpaca, covert coating, serro or voile, as then they will do good service right up to the time when winter clothes and furs become a necessity.

With the younger girls it is coming more and more to be the custom to wear the lighter washable materials all the year, the needed warmth being supplied by the extra flannel undergarments. And the dress of de-cative design is just as necessary for the seven-year-old as for the 17-year-old miss. But for both the choice may well fall upon white muslin or fine nique trimmed with the broadest band of lace, which as it manages to combine daintiness and durability in the most satisfactory fashion, is likely to go on enjoying the favor of fashion and her followers for many a long day to come. In the case of the little damsel of seven, the design of the skirt may be followed to advantage, the broderie which forms that very effective plastron and panel being outlined with little fitted frillings of tulle, while the bodice of soft blue rose pink satin may be passed underneath, so that it may give a fascinating suggestion of its presence through the semi-transparency of the broderie in front, though it comes into fuller prominence at the sides.

Sweet 17, in her turn, might really with just a few modifications, adapt the same design to her own use, the broderie panel being, of course, in her case, so graduated as to taper at the waist and widen out again at the skirt; while a transparent yoke and collar band of Valenciennes lace and a foam of frills in the same soft lace as a finish to the elbow sleeves, may also be suggested, while furthermore it would be advisable—and distinctly decorative—to outline the broderie with ruffled frillings of Valenciennes.

For a dress for cooler days one of the fashionable checked velvets may be made up into the faithful likeness of the one shown in our sketch, sapphire blue, with a contrast on the bodice of black and white, and the softening finish of some ivory-toned lace being one of the most effective color schemes. Or, if made in a fine summer cloth in black and white check, it could be worn right on into October, and in this case the waistcoat fronts could introduce some touch of color —red, for example, would look especially well with borderings of black and white.

For the grown-ups already the prettiest of foulard dresses are being made up to serve a double purpose—that of finishing out the outdoor season, when it is possible to wander around minus a wrap of any description, and an event more important one of being used for a house dress.

Paris has openly declared her belief in foulards—but they are always the new foulards, which have come under the chiffon influence and find themselves as soft and supple, and almost as rich in a way as liberty satins.

Only the simpler sort of house gowns can be made of them, but they are stunning. Red foulards, sprinkled all over with tiny white dots, are made up in fascinating ways that show skirts shirred on cords, unique plastrons and tucks and plain shir-rings without number. Of course, there is trimming, and it is usually of a lingerie type—a sheer white yoke, perhaps with undersleeves to match, or at least with some sort of a frill or of an elbow cuff to match.

Like crepe de chine, a foulard doesn't require a silk lining, which makes it appeal even more strongly to the majority of women.

The combination of dotted foulard with a plain foulard of the same shade is most effective of all when it is carried out in a new blue, lighter than the usual shades, as soft, in its way, as is old blue, yet a much stronger shade and one that utterly lacks the peculiar milky tone that characterizes old blue.

A Short Chapter on Hats for Fall Wear

"What will Mr. Lady's fall hat be made of, made of."

What will Mr. Lady's fall hat be made of,
Plumes and wings, and ribbons galore.
And that's what Mr. Lady's hat will be made of."

It will, of course, cost a pretty penny, but then, getting what a woman is buying a bonnet she doesn't count the cost until after the bill comes in and then with sweetest resignation she lets dear hubby do the worrying.

A point of special note in reference to the new millinery is the extreme length of the plumes seen on many of the dressier styles of hats. Some are almost two feet in length and made to look longer by the manner in which they are placed and bent.
Instead of being curved around the latter, they are put on almost straight, thus showing off to full length. Some are ostrich, although fancy effects are seen.

As to colors, white and black will be strong factors in the situation, but the other shades will not be neglected.
Brown in the entire range will be used, while green and blue effects will be seen, also certain shades of red, particularly of the raspberry order. A new shade also will be introduced, known as princess blue, which is similar to royal although a trifle sayer.

The bow in double, triple and even quadruple for matrons, while chou and rosette ideas will be seen among various other forms.

Flowers will not be forgotten, the natural effects not being so much sought after as the large silk and velvet roses which are very beautiful and ornamental. These will be seen as a sole adornment and also in combination with feathers and plumes.

Feet, especially the straw, will make a strong bid for popularity, and the natural colors will prevail, while hobnail will be very likely to appear.

A KENTUCKY HERO.

Risked His Life to Save His Hated Enemy.

The recent award of a silver medal and $1,500 by the Carnegie Hero Fund Commission to Capt. Rufus K. Combs, of Midway, brings before the public a story of splendid heroism. Capt. Combs at the imminent risk of his own life, saved the life of his most ardently hated enemy, Richard Godson. Both men live at Midway, and for many years were personally and politically antagonistic. On April 2, 1906, Godson was overcome by gas in a vault. A crowd collected, but there was no one on the scene with courage to attempt a rescue. Combs, who has a blacksmith shop 600 yards from the vault, saw that something was wrong, and, though lame, ran to the vault. Winded and weary from his exertion, he looked down and saw the prostrate form of Godson. Without hesitating he dropped through the manhole. Three times he lifted the limp body before it was grasped by those above. Combs then fainted and was pulled out. Combs is quoted as saying he saved Godson's life because he admired a "hard fighter."

BUSINESS GROWING. Planters Bank & Trust Co. Spreading Itself.

It is most gratifying to note the increase in business of the Planters Bank & Trust Co. So steadily has it grown that in order to meet the demands it has recently had to increase its capital stock. The trust department has reached the point where the entire attention of a man has become absolutely necessary. At a recent meeting the stockholders selected Mr. T. J. McReynolds for the position. Mr. McReynolds is second vice-president and has entered upon his duties. He brings to the bank the experience of several years in a similar position in Decatur, Illinois, and is therefore thoroughly competent in every way for the responsibilities that rest upon him.

HELP CENSUS TAKER.

Directory Man Says Many People Are Slow to Answer.

Mr. Thornton, who is compiling our city directory, says:

Mr. Meacham:— I am doing all I possibly can to make your directory of Hopkinsville accurate and complete, even to the extent of doing all the hard work myself and trusting no one to assist in taking census, but find it difficult to get names, etc., correctly given at many places. This is especially true of boarding houses, and houses where they evidently do not want to be known as keeping boarders. Can you not get the people to assist in this by leaving their full names, etc., at their rooming or boarding places.

Respectfully, TOLES THORNTON. We hope the public will lend a friendly co-operation, as a new directory is greatly needed for Greater Hopkinsville.
